Show your support for the 12th Annual Little Cities Tour de Forest Benefit Bicycle Ride on Saturday morning, April 29, 2017 beginning and ending at Hocking College Student Center in Nelsonville. Various routes take riders through the forested hills of southeastern Ohio on both level and challenging courses. This a non-competitive ride that raises funds for the Little Cities of Black Diamonds Council which is committed to gathering, protecting and sharing the heritage, cultural and environmental assets of this boom-to-bust coal mining region that is now home to the Wayne National Forest, and the Little Cities of the Forest Collaborative which promotes environmental restoration, education and recreation in the same region. Two levels of sponsorships are available with the following benefits:

dogwood sponsor ($250)

full page add in program book, logo on tour de forest web site, 2 social media posts on tour de forest sites, logo on event banner day of ride, two ride registrations with t-shirts, lunch, etc.

redbud sponsor ($100)

1/4 pg. add in program book, logo on tour de forest web site, 1 social media post on tour de forest sites, logo on event banner day of ride, and ride registration with t-shirt, lunch, etc.

To become a sponsor fill out form below and return with check to Little Cities of Black Diamonds, P. O. Box 128, Shawnee, Ohio 43782, or <mailto:tourdeforestohio@gmail.com>, or call Jeff Wunderly at 740-707-1775 for more information. For more details about event visit our website at
